Maryland Board of Occupational Therapy Practice

Subject: Information About MBOT's Website

Bulletin from the Board:

The Maryland Board of OT's web address is <http://dhmh.maryland.gov/botp/>. This website can be a very useful resource for both licensees and applicants and includes the following items:

- Statutes and Regulations
- Licensure and Renewal Process
- Important Forms
- Continuing Education Information
- Information about the Board and its Members

Recently, the Board posted a timeline that highlights major events in the history of Occupational Therapy in Maryland. Those who visit the website may find it interesting to see the changes that have occurred since the Board was first established in 1979.

NOTICE: Board responses to inquiries are intended for guidance purposes only. As these positions do not necessarily reflect a discussion of all material considerations required to reach the conclusions stated, they are not intended to be rules, regulations or official statements of the Board. Accordingly, due to their highly informal nature, these responses are not considered binding upon the Board and should not be relied on as definitive.

This service is provided to you at no charge by Maryland Department of Health and Mental Hygiene Boards.
