Hello,

The Maryland Health Care Commission (MHCC) is pleased to make available its Announcement for Grant Applications (announcement) for a telehealth technology pilot. The MHCC will fund, on a competitive basis, up to three awards to demonstrate the impact of telehealth on any of the following use cases:

1. Incorporate telehealth in hospital innovative care delivery models through ambulatory practice shared savings programs;

2. Use telehealth in hospital emergency departments and during transport of critically ill patients to aid in preparation for receipt of patient;
3. Incorporate telehealth in public health screening and monitoring with the exchange of electronic health information; and
4. Use telehealth for remote mentoring, monitoring and proctoring of health care practitioners through telehealth or the expansion, dispersion and maintenance of skills, supervision, and education

Applicants may also propose an alternative use case that has not been previously funded by MHCC. Funding per award is up to $30,000 and requires a 2:1 financial match rate. Grant applications are due to MHCC by 5:00 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time on Friday, September 25, 2015. Please see announcement for more details here and attached.

The MHCC would appreciate you forwarding the announcement to anyone that you believe might have an interest in the pilot. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.
