ORDER OF SUSPENSION OF CERTIFICATE FOR DELINQUENT CHILD SUPPORT

BACKGROUND

On or about July 5, 2016, the Maryland Board of Dental Examiners (the “Board”) received a written request from the Prince George’s County Office of Child Support Enforcement (the “Administration”) to suspend the radiation technologist certificate held by Wendy Renee Davis-Kelley (the “Respondent”), Certificate No. 9144, for delinquent child support. This action was to be taken by authority of Md. Code Ann., Fam. Law §10-119.3 (2012 Repl. Vol.), which provides, in pertinent part:

(e)(2) Except as provided in paragraph (3) of this subsection, upon notification by the Administration under this section, a licensing authority<sup>1</sup> shall:

(i) Appeal; hearing. –(1)(i) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, an individual may appeal a decision of a licensing authority to suspend or deny the individual’s license in accordance with Title 10, Subtitle 2 of the State Government Article.

(ii) At a hearing under this paragraph, the issue shall be limited to whether the Administration has mistaken the identity of the individual whose license has been suspended or denied.

(k) Reinstatement of license—Duty of licensing authority. – A licensing authority shall immediately reinstate any license suspended, or process an application for any license denied, under this section if:

- (1) notified by the Administration that the license should be reinstated; and
- (2) the individual otherwise qualifies for the license.

On July 8, 2016, the Board sent an unexecuted copy of this Order of Suspension to the Respondent. Accompanying the unexecuted Order of Suspension was a cover letter notifying the Respondent of her right to contest her identity in writing within thirty days of the date of the letter and notifying the Respondent that if she did not submit a signed, written appeal to the Board on or before August 8, 2016, the Board would execute this Order of Suspension as written.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Board issued a radiation technologist certificate to the Respondent and her certificate is currently active and is scheduled to expire on March 1, 2017.
2. On or about July 5, 2016, the Board received a written request from the Administration, entitled “Request to Suspend or Deny License for Delinquent Child Support” (the “Request”), which requested that the Board suspend the radiation technologist certificate held by the Respondent for delinquent child support under the authority of Md. Code Ann., Fam. Law §10-119.3.

The Request stated that, as of July 1, 2016, the arrearage amount of child support that the Respondent owed was $4,905.17 in the Administration's case numbered 680089315.

3. As noted above, Md. Code Ann., Fam. Law § 0-119.3(e)(2) & (h)(1) requires that the Board suspend the certificate of the Respondent upon notification by the Administration and after sending written notice to the Respondent of the proposed suspension of her certificate and of her right "to contest the identity of the individual whose [certificate] is to be suspended."

4. On July 8, 2016, the Board sent an unexecuted copy of this Order of Suspension to the Respondent's last known address registered with the Board. Included with the unexecuted Order of Suspension was a letter notifying Respondent of her right to contest her identity, in writing to the Board, within thirty days of the date of the letter; that is, to contest that she was not the Wendy Renee Davis-Kelley, Certificate No. 9144, named by the Administration as the individual whose certificate should be suspended for delinquent child support. In addition, the letter also gave Respondent written notice that if she did not submit to the Board a signed, written appeal on or before August 8, 2016, the Board would execute this Order of Suspension as written.

5. The Respondent did not submit a written contest of identity to the Board by August 8, 2016; nor was the Board notified that the Respondent arranged to pay the arrears in full.

6. Having given the Respondent the statutorily required written notice of the Board's intent to suspend her certificate and of her right to contest identity pursuant to Md. Code Ann., Fam. Law § 10-119.3(h)(1), and having not received a written response or appeal from the Respondent, the Board is statutorily required to suspend the Respondent's certificate, pursuant to Md. Code Ann., Fam. Law §10-119.3(e)(2).

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Based on the foregoing Findings of Fact, the Board concludes that, pursuant to Md. Code Ann., Fam. Law §10-119.3(e)(2)(i), it is statutorily required to suspend the Respondent's radiation technologist certificate until the Board receives notification from the Administration that the Respondent's certificate should be reinstated pursuant to Md. Code Ann., Fam. Law §10-119.3(k)(1)-(2), provided that the Respondent is otherwise qualified for certification.
