YOUR PATIENTS' ID CARDS ARE CHANGING

New name. New look. Same coverage.

Last year, CareFirst acquired two health plans from University of Maryland Medical System. As a provider, there will be no changes related to claims, authorizations, customer service and credentialing.

New plan name changes go into effect on February 1. These changes are reflected in the new member ID cards. University of Maryland Health Partners will be CareFirst BlueCross BlueShield Community Health Plan Maryland, a Medicaid MCO. University of Maryland Health Advantage will be CareFirst BlueCross BlueShield Medicare Advantage.

UMMS websites will have new addresses reflected on February 1, but can be accessed using the old urls during this transition.

CareFirst Has Acquired Two University of Maryland Medical System Health Plans

If I am in the UM Health Partners/UM Health Advantage network, am I now in the CareFirst network?

No. At this time, the networks will remain separate. Your contract with UM Health Partners/UM Health Advantage will remain the same.

Are the plan names changing?

Yes, effective February 1, 2021 both plan names will change. UM Health Partners will be known as CareFirst BlueCross BlueShield Community Health Plan Maryland and UM Health Advantage will be known as CareFirst BlueCross BlueShield Medicare Advantage.

New names. New logos. Same great care.

Your University of Maryland Medical System health care plan is now part of the CareFirst BlueCross BlueShield family. Here's an idea of what that will look like.

Will members receive new ID cards?

Yes, members will be issued new ID cards with CareFirst branding on February 1st.

New card. Same care.

University of Maryland Medical System plan members are now part of the CareFirst BlueCross BlueShield family. Their ID cards, shown below, will reflect this change.
