SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER

On November 1, 2012, the Maryland Board of Examiners of Psychologists (the "Board") entered into a Consent Order with Mark Palmisano, Ph.D., License No. 03154, based on violations of the Maryland Psychologists Act. Pursuant to the Consent Order, Dr. Palmisano's license to practice psychology was suspended for a period of two years, during which he was required to enroll in and complete a Board-approved ethics tutorial and complete a Board-approved law course. The Consent Order further provided that upon compliance with the terms of the suspension, Dr. Palmisano's license would be placed on probation for a period of two years, during which he would pay a fine of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) to the Board and submit to further peer review of his practice, as determined by the Board. On or about October 31, 2014, the Board received a report from Dr. Palmisano's ethics tutor, indicating that Dr. Palmisano had successfully completed his ethics tutorial. As a result, the Board has determined that Dr. Palmisano is in full compliance with the terms of his suspension.
