BEFORE THE MARYLAND STATE

BOARD FOR THE CERTIFICATION

OF RESIDENTIAL CHILD CARE

PROGRAM PROFESSIONALS

* * * * *

CONSENT ORDER OF REPRIMAND

On or about March 27, 2018, Walter L. Boyd (the “Applicant”) submitted an initial certification application for Residential Child and Youth Care Practitioner to the Maryland Board for the Certification of Residential Child Care Program Professionals (the “Board”). Upon completion of a criminal history record check as required by Md. Code Ann., Health Occ. Article (“H.O.”) § 20-302, the Board discovered that the Applicant had a criminal history. The Board initiated an investigation. The Applicant submitted to the Board a narrative statement and subsequently provided supporting documentation regarding his charges and disposition.

Based upon the Applicant’s certification application, the court documents acquired during the Board’s investigation, and the Applicant’s narrative statement, the Board voted to offer a Consent Order of Reprimand to the Applicant, in lieu of issuing Charges for violations of the Maryland Residential Child Care Program Professionals Act (the “Act”), H.O. § 20-101 et seq. Specifically, the Board finds that the Applicant violated H.O. §§ 20-313(b)(1) (“Fraudulently or deceptively obtains or attempts to obtain a certificate for a...residential child and youth care practitioner...”). As a result of that offer, the Applicant and the Board agreed to the following Consent Order.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Board finds that:

1. On or about March 27, 2018, the Applicant submitted to the Board an initial certification application for Residential Child and Youth Care Practitioner (the “Application”).

2. In the character and fitness portion of the Application, the Applicant answered “NO” to Question 4: “Have you pled guilty, to, [sic] nolo contendere, been convicted of, or received probation before judgment for any criminal act (excluding misdemeanor traffic violations)?”

3. Court records obtained by the Board show that on February 11, 1998, the Applicant pled guilty to and was convicted of CDS-Unlawful MFGR ETC. The Applicant was sentenced to three years supervised probation. Court records also indicate that on October 15, 1999, the Applicant pled guilty to and was convicted of Violation of Probation. The Applicant was sentenced to incarceration for the remainder of his probation term where he was subject to drug treatment and random urinalysis.

4. In a narrative statement submitted to the Board dated May 5, 2018, the Applicant acknowledged that at the time of his conviction, he was struggling with drug addiction. He further explained that he used his period of incarceration to get “clean and sober” and has been in recovery for twelve years. He stated that, as a you care practitioner, he looks forward to providing “the same care and support” that was provided to him during his recovery. The Applicant did not address the issue of his failure to disclose his convictions on his application for certification as a child and youth care practitioner.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Based on the foregoing findings of fact, the Board concludes that the Applicant violated Md. Code Ann., Health Occ. § 20-313(b)(1) (“Fraudulently or deceptively obtains or attempts to obtain a certificate for a program administrator or residential child and youth care practitioner, or for another...”), in that the Applicant did not disclose his criminal history on his Application for certification.
