BEFORE THE

STATE BOARD

OF CHIROPRACTIC EXAMINERS

FINAL CONSENT ORDER

Based on information received and a subsequent investigation by the State Board of Chiropractic Examiners (the "Board"), and subject to Md. Health Occ. Ann. § 3-5A-01, et seq., (2000 Repl. Vol.) (the "Massage Therapists Act" or the "Act"), the Board charged Kathryn Blake, M.T., (the "Respondent"), with violations of the Act. Specifically, the Board charged the Respondent with violation of the following provisions of § 3-5A-09:

(a) Subject to the hearing provisions of §3-315 of this subtitle, the Board may deny a certificate or registration to any applicant, reprimand any certificate holder or registration holder, place any certificate holder or registration holder on probation, or suspend or revoke the certificate of a certificate holder or the registration of a registration holder, if the applicant, certificate holder, or registration holder:

- (1) Fraudulently or deceptively obtains or attempts to obtain a certificate or registration for the applicant or for another;
- (19) Fails to cooperate with a lawful investigation conducted by the Board [:].

The Respondent was given notice of the issues underlying the Board's charges by notice dated March 18, 2002. Accordingly, a Case Resolution Conference was held on May 9, 2002, and was attended by Brian Ashton, D.C., Board member, and Richard Bloom, Assistant Attorney General, Board Counsel. Also in attendance were the Respondent and her attorney, Arnold S. Kaplan, and the Administrative Prosecutor, Roberta Gill.

Following the Case Resolution Conference, the parties and the Board agreed to resolve the matter by way of settlement. The parties and the Board agreed to the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. At all times relevant to the charges herein, the Respondent was certified to practice massage therapy in the State of Maryland. The Respondent was first certified on February 3, 2000. The Respondent's certification expires October 31, 2002.
2. Prior to becoming certified, the Respondent was employed by a corporation known as AHS, Inc., which owns three separate massage locations in Maryland. During the course of the Board's investigation, the Respondent denied working under an alias and of having any knowledge of AHS, Inc., or its owner. When later confronted by the investigator, the Respondent admitted to working under the pseudonym, and admitted to knowledge of AHS, Inc. However, she continued to deny knowing about other aspects of the business practices of AHS, Inc.

3. During a routine check of references submitted by a group of applicants for certification as massage therapists, it was discovered that they all listed the Respondent as a reference. All of the applications were from AHS, Inc.

4. The Respondent was contacted and denied knowing any of the applicants, other than one whom she claimed had been a client of hers and who had paid her $15 to be listed as a reference. That client later acknowledged paying the Respondent $15 a piece for all applicants listing the Respondent as a reference. The Respondent is listed as a reference for 30 applicants. The Respondent acknowledged that she does not know any of them and has not seen them perform massages.

5. Allowing one's name to be listed as a reference for applicants for certification when one does not know them or their work is fraudulently or deceptively attempting to obtain a certificate for another in violation of the Act. Failing to cooperate in a lawful Board investigation is a violation of the Act.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW
