FINAL CONSENT ORDER

Based on information received and a subsequent investigation by the State Board of Chiropractic Examiners (the "Board"), and subject to Md. Health Occ. Ann. § 3-5A-01, et seq., (the "Massage Therapists Act") (2000 Repl. Vol.), the Board charged Joung J. Chang, a/k/a Joung J. Cheung, M.T., (the "Respondent"), with violations of the Act. Specifically, the Board charged the Respondent with violation of the following provisions of § 3-5A-09:

(a) Subject to the hearing provisions of § 3-315 of this title, the Board may deny a certificate or registration to any applicant, reprimand any certificate holder or registration holder, place any certificate holder or registration holder on probation, or suspend or revoke the certificate of a certificate holder or the registration of a registration holder if the applicant, certificate holder, or registration holder:

- (2) Fraudulently or deceptively uses a certificate or registration;
- (8) Does an act that is inconsistent with generally accepted professional standards in the practice of massage therapy;
- (20) Engages in conduct that violates the professional code of ethics; or
- (21) Knowingly does an act that has been determined by the Board to be a violation of the Board's regulations.

The Board further charged the Respondent with violating the following subsections of its Code of Ethics, Code Md. Regs. tit. 10, § 43.18 (October 16, 2000):

- .05 Professional Boundaries, thereof:

A. A certificate holder or registration holder shall:

- (1) Maintain professional boundaries, even when the client initiates crossing the professional boundaries of the professional relationship; and
- (2) Respect and maintain professional boundaries and respect the client's reasonable expectation of professional conduct.

B. A certificate holder or registration holder may not:

- (1) Exploit a relationship with a client for the certificate holder's or registration holder's personal advantage, including, but not limited to, a personal, sexual, romantic, or financial relationship;
- (2) Engage in a sexually intimate act with a client; or
- (3) Engage in sexual misconduct that includes, but is not limited to:
  - (a) Therapeutic deception,
  - (b) Non bona fide treatment, or
  - (c) A sexually exploitative relationship.

The Respondent was given notice of the issues underlying the Board's charges by letter dated December 11, 2003.<sup>1</sup> Accordingly, a Case Resolution Conference was held on January 15, 2003, which the Respondent failed to attend. The Respondent failed to comply with deadlines for submission of documents in preparation for the hearing. As a result, on February 25, 2004, the Board granted the State's Motion in Limine to Exclude the Respondent's Witnesses and Exhibits.

<sup>1</sup> Because the Respondent failed to notify the Board of her change of address, as required, the Charges and documentation regarding the case, e.g., exhibit and witness lists, were sent to various addresses on several occasions such as, on March 15, 2004, the State's Motion to Amend by Interlineation, was returned to the Office of Attorney General, and on March 17, 2004, the State's Motion in Limine was also returned to the Office of Attorney General.

On March 11, 2004, the Respondent, nonetheless, appeared at the hearing without an attorney, having knowingly and voluntarily waived her right to one. Before the hearing could commence, the State and the Respondent reached an agreement to settle the case, which agreement was presented to a full quorum of the Board, which assented to the settlement.

Accordingly, the following settlement was placed on the record and the parties and the Board agreed to the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. At all times relevant hereto, the Respondent was certified to practice massage therapy in Maryland. The Respondent was first certified on December 18, 2001. The Respondent's certificate expires on October 31, 2004.

2. At all times relevant hereto, the Respondent worked at the Rockville Health Center (the "Center") in Rockville, Maryland.

3. On or about April 30, 2003, the Montgomery County Police Department, Vice and Intelligence Section (the "Section"), conducted an investigation of the Center, when they observed a male enter the Center and then exit sometime later. The male was interviewed by Detectives Stack and Wiley of the Section.

4. The male customer informed the detectives that he had been told by a friend that he could get a massage and a hand job at the Center. Thereafter, he went to the Center and rang the bell, which was answered by the Respondent, who took him to a massage room and asked him how long he wanted to stay. The customer told the Respondent a half hour and she told him it would cost $60. The customer paid the Respondent $60 and she left the room, while he completely undressed and lay on the massage table on his stomach. The Respondent returned and started to massage the customer's back for several minutes, and then instructed him to flip over, which he did. Thereupon, the Respondent massaged his chest, legs and genitals. The Respondent stopped to put hand lotion in her hand and then continued to give the customer a hand release until he ejaculated.

5. Thereafter the Section entered the Center to identify the female who gave the above customer a massage and hand release. The door was answered by the Respondent who stated that she was the only female in the Center. A Polaroid picture was taken of the Respondent and shown to the customer who made a positive identification that the Respondent was the individual who gave him the massage and hand release.

6. The Respondent admitted to the Section that she gave the customer a massage and a hand release and cleaned him up with tissues, which she discarded in the trash can in the bathroom. The Respondent was arrested and charged with prostitution.

7. A massage therapist who massages a completely nude and undraped customer and gives that customer a hand release is in violation of the Act and regulations thereunder.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Based upon the foregoing Findings of Fact, the Board finds that Respondent violated § 3-5A-09 (a) (2), (8), (20) and (21) of the Act. The Board also finds that the Respondent violated Code Md. Regs. tit. 10, § 43.18.05 A (1) and (2), and, B (1), (2), and (3).
